Minor Plan of Study

Interpreting Between American Sign Language and English

This minor is intended to offer students specific course content related to the knowledge and skills necessary for effective interpreting of American Sign Language and English.

The following policies adhere to the University and CLAS policies on minors:

- A final plan of study for the minor, signed by the Interpreting American Sign Language and English Studies Minor Advisor, must be filed with the Registrar during the first four weeks of classes of the semester in which a student expects to graduate, along with the final plan of study for his/her major. A second copy of the signed form should go to the student’s major advisor. Once filed with the Registrar, changes in the plan may be made only with the consent of the Interpreting American Sign Language and English Studies Minor Advisor.

- Completion of a minor requires that a student earn a C (2.0) or better in each of the courses for the minor. A maximum of 3 credits towards the minor may be transfer credits of equivalent course content to University of Connecticut courses.

- Minor plan of study must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar during the first four weeks of the semester in which the student expects to graduate.

Course Requirements:

- A total of 15 credits (five, 3 credit courses) of 2000-level or above coursework is required.
