

UConn

ASL Community Housing

ASL Community Housing is an accessible living community at the University of Connecticut, Storrs Campus. We are open to Deaf, DeafBlind and hard-of-hearing students, and others who know and use American Sign Language.

Details

Where is it? ASL Housing is located on the sixth floor of Watson Hall, Alumni Quad, a great central campus location.

Who can join? Deaf, DeafBlind, HoH students are all welcome. Hearing students proficient in ASL may also apply.

How to apply: Indicate your interest on the ResLife Housing Application, opening Jan. 1st!

More information :

General questions:

✉ uconn.asl.community@gmail.com

Building accessibility questions:

✉ livingoncampus@uconn.edu

www.asl.uconn.edu/special-interest-housing/